

Where's My Model Number?

Refrigerators/Freezers

Model numbers can be found usually on an aluminum tag or adhesive label. Be careful not to scrub the tag with anything abrasive – you might wipe the information right off the tag!

All types:

- Inside the refrigerator or freezer, on the left, or right side wall, or inside top
- Behind the lower crisper drawer
- Behind the lower toe kick-plate
- On the face frame of the refrigerator body
- Open the refrigerator door and look on the door liner

Range/Stove/Oven/Cooktop

Model numbers can be found usually on an aluminum tag or adhesive label. Be careful not to scrub the tag with anything abrasive – you might wipe the information right off the tag!

Range/Stove/Cooktop - Gas:

- If the top lifts up, look inside down on the pan
- Under cabinet on the bottom of the unit
- If it is a "downdraft" unit, inside the top of the vent duct or underneath on the blower housing

Range/Stove/Cooktop - Electric:

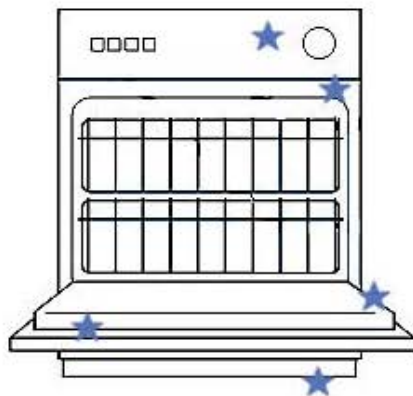

- Under one of the surface burners, or inside the cooktop--if the top lifts up
- On the outside, bottom of the unit
- If it is a "downdraft" unit, inside the top of the vent duct or underneath on the blower housing

Gas or Electric Oven:

- On oven side of the door jamb (with the door open)
- On the lower drawer jamb (with the bottom drawer open)

Dishwashers

Model numbers can be found usually on an aluminum tag or adhesive label. Be careful not to scrub the tag with anything abrasive – you might wipe the information right off the tag!

Built in:

- Inside the door on the tub, to the left, right, or top
- On the door, to the left, right or top
- On the face of the control panel
- Under the handle of the dishwasher
- Under the toe plate at the bottom of the unit

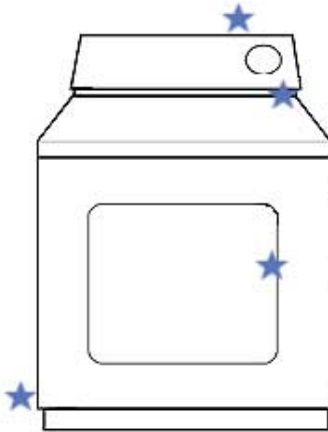

Portable:

- Inside the door jamb, to the left, right, or top
- On the door, to the left, right or top
- Inside the door on the tub, to the left, right, or top

- On the back of the unit

Dryers

Model numbers can be found usually on an aluminum tag or adhesive label. Be careful not to scrub the tag with anything abrasive – you might wipe the information right off the tag!

Dryer only, gas or electric :

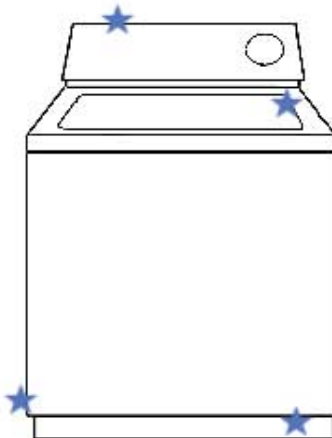

- Inside the door, on the cabinet frame
- On the back of the unit, by the control panel
- On the left side of the unit, near the front at the bottom
- On the right side of the unit, at the back near the control panel

Washer-dryer combination unit:

- Inside the dryer door, on the door frame
- On top of the dryer
- On either side of the washer, near the bottom, front
- Under the lid

Washing Machines

Model numbers can be found usually on an aluminum tag or adhesive label. Be careful not to scrub the tag with anything abrasive – you might wipe the information right off the tag!

Top-loading washer only:

- Lift the lid, and look down at the top of the washer
- On the back of the control panel
- On the lower-front or side of the main cabinet body

Front-loading washer only:

- Behind the door
- Behind or on top of the control panel
- On the side of the unit near the front

Washer-dryer combination unit:

- Inside the dryer door, on the door frame

- On the top of the dryer
- On the side of the washer, near the bottom, front
- Under the washer lid

Trash Compactors

Model numbers can be found usually on an aluminum tag or adhesive label. Be careful not to scrub the tag with anything abrasive – you might wipe the information right off the tag!

- Pull the drawer out and look on the frame

Disposers

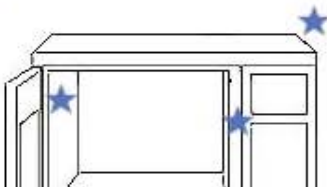

Model numbers can be found usually on an aluminum tag or adhesive label. Be careful not to scrub the tag with anything abrasive – you might wipe the information right off the tag!

- On the sides of the unit down towards the bottom
- On the very bottom of the unit

Microwaves

Model numbers can be found usually on an aluminum tag or adhesive label. Be careful not to scrub the tag with anything abrasive – you might wipe the information right off the tag!

- Open door, look inside microwave
- Open door, look on frame where door closes
- Look on the back of portable microwave

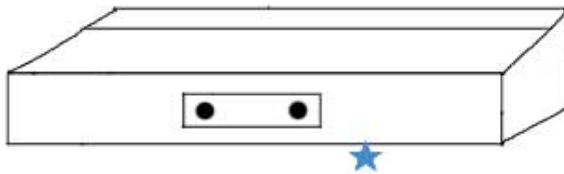

Ice Machines

Model numbers can be found usually on an aluminum tag or adhesive label. Be careful not to scrub the tag with anything abrasive – you might wipe the information right off the tag!

- Open door look on frame of machine
- Take off bottom panel and look on frame

Vent a Hoods

Model numbers can be found usually on an aluminum tag or adhesive label. Be careful not to scrub the tag with anything abrasive – you might wipe the information right off the tag!

- Take filter out and look inside on housing
- Look under hood on sides of housing